

National Chung Cheng University

Ranked among the best 100 universities in Asia by Times Higher Education and voted as the most beautiful campus by Yahoo Taiwan in 2012, National Chung Cheng University (CCU) was the first National University to be established after Taiwan's economic boom in the 1980's, with an aim to meet the needs of qualified and highly motivated persons. CCU consists of 7 colleges, including College of Humanities, College of Sciences, College of Social Sciences, College of Engineering, College of Management, College of Law, and College of Education with 29 departments and 44 graduate institutes which offer 29 bachelor, 44 master, and 28 doctoral degree programs. CCU also has 529 excellent teaching faculty members: 96% of faculty members receive Ph.D. degrees from accredited academic institutions around the world—Percentage ranked as the best in Taiwan.

Education:

Master in Educational Leadership and Management Development

Science:

PhD Program in Cognitive Science

Engineering:

Master of Science in Advanced Manufacturing System(expected to be available after fall, 2016)

Finance:

International Master Program in Global Finance(expected to be available after fall, 2015)